

Personal Note

For anyone who has had life unfold differently than they expected, these songs are for you. Through the wrongs done to us; the rebellion and sin of our own heart; sometimes we find life to be far beyond our control or repair.

There is One that makes all things new; only One that can turn a hopeless situation into a trophy of grace and reconciliation. There is only One that can use our very failures to communicate hope to the hopeless. He waits patiently as we travel the road to the end of ourselves and offers up a new way of living; a new way of dying. His burden is light and his peace gives rest to the faint of heart.

As God continues to allow me to journey through this life, one of my greatest delights is to encourage others with the idea that He is NEVER finished with us...until we see Him face to face. His mercy is bigger than our weakness and He is always there when we reach the end of ourselves, and ask Him to intervene.

As each of us walk through seasons of life, some joyous and some full of suffering and sorrow, we can rest in the promise that He is working all of these things together for our good.

God has done the impossible in my life. He has resurrected that which was beyond repair, given hope where only despair was to be found, and given a new song to tell of how He rescued me and how He can rescue you.

My deepest desire is to be a tool in His hands to minister healing, forgiveness and restoration that only our Father God can offer!

— Heather Powers